Toronto, Ontario (Dec 1, 2016): Huge news reaches around the globe, as it's announced today that Dog and Beth Chapman, will visit Toronto at the Biggest Motorcycle Show of the year, the 41st Annual North American International Motorcycle SUPERSHOW (NAIMS) at the International Centre, January 6 – 8, 2017.

Making their first Toronto appearance, show attendees will come from around North America to meet and get an autograph from the hugely popular Reality Show stars and active Bounty Hunters, Dog the Bounty Hunter and Beth Chapman from the hit reality shows; Dog the Bounty Hunter, and Dog and Beth on the Hunt. It's sparking excitement as a flood of calls and emails have been rolling in to the shows head office regarding their scheduled appearances on Friday January 6, and Saturday January 7.

"We are really excited to have celebrities like Dog and Beth come to the Motorcycle SUPERSHOW! Their involvement in the SUPERSHOW proves the size and momentum of the show. We continue to head in the right direction giving the motorcycle community everything they want in a motorcycle show. We're proud to welcome Dog and Beth, who have dedicated their lives to their cause, changing lives and making a difference around the globe. They'll be at the show Friday and Saturday to sign autographs, take pictures and meet their fans right here in Toronto.." Commented Richard Kehoe, President of NAIMS.
