A Century of Motorcycles Exhibition

Only at the North American International Motorcycle SUPERSHOW
January 5, 6 & 7, 2018 - International Centre

Toronto, Ontario (July 25, 2017): Tailored for excellence, the 42nd Annual North American International Motorcycle SUPERSHOW will host the stunning "Century of Motorcycles Exhibition". This Red Carpet classic exhibit will truly be a remarkable display with a brilliant array of various vintage collector bikes.

This classic feature of the Motorcycle SUPERSHOW, considered Canada's version of the 'Art of the Motorcycle', is a main feature along the red carpet for the ten's of thousands of motorcycle enthusiasts that visit the show. Enlighten your interest in Vintage, and learn the history behind the sport of Motorcycling. This feature exhibit is dedicated to vintage & classic bikes and will showcase over 50 unique motorcycles selected from the 1900's to early 2000's, to be featured at Canada's most impressive vintage motorcycle display all under one roof.

If you own a rare vintage motorcycle that should be on the red carpet, and you're able to have your bike at the International Centre from Thursday January 4th to Sunday January 7th 2018, the Motorcycle SUPERSHOW will provide your weekend admission to the show, along with your bikes signage. Space is limited within the display, please share your interest and participation as soon as possible. Motorcycles in the 'Century of Motorcycles Exhibition' can be eligible for awards in the Showbike competition, or can be registered for sale through the Used Bike Market.

If you have a special vintage motorcycle that deserves to be showcased, or you have questions regarding the Century of Motorcycles Exhibition, please contact us at 905-722-6766 or email mike@motorcyclesupershow.ca
